10. Declarations and information

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I hereby confirm that the information I have given in this form is correct.

If the information is found to be false, I am subject to the following penalties according to the Danish Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years
- Reimbursing any expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information.

B. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Danish Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this form. This may happen while the application is being reviewed or after the applicant has been granted a visa. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Danish Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Business Register
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

C Information about the consequences connected to the applicants illegal stay in Denmark or another Schengen country

If the applicant is issued a visa, he/she is to leave the Schengen area within the validity of his/her visa. The validity of the visa can be found on the visa sticker. The duration of the stay is often longer than the number of days the visa is issued for. It is of the utmost importance that the applicant does not stay in Denmark for more days than the visa is valid for or later than the last day of the visa period.

If the applicant stays in Denmark or another Schengen country beyond the validity of the visa, he/she can become ineligible for a new visa for a period of 5 years. Is the duration of the overstay less than 1 month, the applicant will become ineligible for a new visa for 3 years.

D. Consequences if the applicant is expelled from Denmark or applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country

If the applicant upon entering Denmark is expelled either by administrative decision or by court order, or if the applicant applies for asylum in Denmark or another Schengen country, the applicant will not be eligible for obtaining a new visa for a period of 5 years.

E. Information about possible consequences if the applicant applies for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If the applicant is staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and submits an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that it may have the following consequences:

- The applicant can become ineligible for a visa for five years (Aliens Act section 4 c).

However, the abovementioned consequences do not apply in the following cases:

- If the applicant is a child under 15 or a spouse applying for family reunification.
- If the applicant applies for a residence permit in order to study.
- If the applicant applies for a residence permit in order to participate in the cities of refuge program.
- If the applicant applies for a residence permit on the grounds of work, and meets the requirements to obtain a permit.
- If there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing the applicant to remain eligible for a visa or the guarantee not to be forfeited.

However, if the main purpose of the application for a residence permit is for the applicant to be allowed to remain in Denmark while the case is being processed, although it is evident that a residence permit cannot be granted, the applicant will not be eligible for a new visa even though the kind of residence permit in question is included in the list above.
